THINGS TO TAKE NOTE OF

General Notes

- o Be sure to consult with the Zicklin website for major requirements. It is highly recommended that students majoring in Industrial and Organizational Psychology meet with a faculty member in the Psychology Department in planning course selection and otherwise meeting career goals.
- o You must complete a liberal arts minor as part of the College Option requirement to graduate. Since you are majoring in Industrial and Organizational Psychology, you cannot minor in Psychology.

The following subjects are considered liberal arts and can be taken at any level to satisfy liberal arts electives:

AAS	ANT	ART	BIO	BLS	CHM	COM
CMP	ECO	ENG	ENV	FLM	FPA	GLS
HED	HIS	HSP	IDC	JRN	LACS	LIB
LTS	MSC	MTH	NMA	PHI	PHY	POL
PSY	REL	SOC	THE	WSM	ALL MODERN LANGUAGES

The following courses are not considered liberal arts:

ART 5010	ART 5011	COM 4059	ECO 5010	ECO 5011	FPA 5070	FPA 5071	HED 1810

SOC 4086	THE 3046	THE 3056	ART/MSC/THE Studio Elective Courses

Notes about the Major

- Although the I/O Psychology major is housed within the Zicklin School of Business, students are permitted to take major courses prior to being officially accepted into the major.

Career Exploration

Industrial and Organizational Psychology is considered the intersection of psychology and business. I/O psychology majors research, observe, and study how personality, cognition, perception, and human development play out in the workplace. Professionals in the field work in a variety of settings including business, consulting, education, and government.
