Outgoing Permit Student Application

UNDERGRADUATE REQUIREMENTS

1. Student must complete a Permit Application for each school they wish to attend. If applying to another CUNY college, do not file this application. Use <http://epermit.cuny.edu>
2. Students must have departmental permission to take course(s) at other colleges. Course description must be included when requesting permission from the department.
3. The maximum credit load allowable for the Fall and Spring semester is 18 credit hours and two courses per Summer Session for a maximum of 12 credit hours. This includes both Baruch College courses and courses taken at another college. Permission to take more than the maximum credits allowable must be obtained from the Center for Academic Advisement and New Student Orientation and be submitted along with the permit application form. Students should list alternative courses in the event that their first choices are closed.
4. First semester freshman and transfer students are not allowed to go on permit until they have completed at least one semester at Baruch with all grades posted and have a GPA of 2.0 or higher.
5. Follow the guidelines stated in the Undergraduate Bulletin and the Academic Policies and Procedures published in the Schedule of Classes. The following rules are enforced:
 - (1)Permits will not be issued for Community Colleges.
 - (2)Permits will be issued only to students matriculated for a degree at Baruch College who are not on academic probation.
 - (3)Permits will not be issued for courses in accounting (see Accounting Department Office).
 - (4)Permission for courses in Astronomy or Geology must be obtained from the Department of Natural Sciences.
6. Students who plan to Study Abroad must contact Dr. Richard Mitten at the Weissman Center for International Business, 137 East 25th Street, Room 822.
7. In order for credits to be transferred from NON-CUNY schools a minimum grade of 'C' must be earned.
8. Return all forms to the Registrar's Office.

GRADUATE REQUIREMENTS

1. Permits are granted only to students who are not on academic probation.
2. Students must obtain written approval for course(s) from the appropriate Graduate Academic Office.
3. The maximum credit load allowable for the Fall and Spring semester is 15 credit hours and for Summer, it is 6. This includes both Baruch courses and courses taken at other colleges. Permission to take more credits must be obtained from the appropriate Graduate Academic Office and be submitted along with Permit Application. Students should list alternative courses in the event your first choices are closed.
4. In order for credits to be transferred from NON-CUNY schools a minimum grade of 'B' must be earned.
5. Return all forms to the Registrar's Office.
