Baruch College

New York City
BARUCH COLLEGE
Located in the heart of New York City, Baruch College delivers excellence in public education to a vibrant, dynamic, and engaged student community. Whether it’s joining one of our 130+ clubs and organizations, rooting on one of our 13 NCAA Division III teams, or having lunch with a friend on our 25th Street Clivner-Field Plaza, Baruch students are members of a diverse community that is as lively and active as the city it calls home.

Baruch’s campus is in a vibrant, historic, and convenient neighborhood. Located 10 minutes from Grand Central Terminal and Penn Station and 15 minutes from Wall Street and Times Square, there is always something to see, do, and eat near Baruch. From dumplings to donuts, street food to fine dining, the food options are endless.

BLACK MALE INITIATIVE

The City University of New York Black Male Initiative (CUNY BMI) represents one important expression of CUNY’s commitment to access and diversity. As a CUNY-Wide initiative, CUNY BMI’s mission is to create model student development projects throughout the University that provide direct services to CUNY students in a coordinated effort that is intended to increase, encourage, and support the inclusion and educational success of students from groups that are severely underrepresented in higher education, in particular African, African American/Black, Caribbean and Latino/Hispanic males. Although CUNY BMI-funded projects target these underrepresented groups, no project supported by CUNY BMI will discriminate on the basis of race or gender and all projects will serves as models for improving educational outcomes for all students. More information at www.baruch.cuny.edu/bmi/.
